INTER-FAITH SERVICE FOR

THE

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

You are cordially invited to attend an inter-faith service at the Bahá'í Temple to mark the International Day of Peace.

DATE: Wednesday 21 September 2011
TIME: 7.30 pm (doors open from 7.00 pm)
VENUE: Bahá'í Temple, 173 Mona Vale Road, Ingleside

The evening service will feature special lighting of the pathways leading to the Temple, readings by representatives of Sydney's major religious communities and performances from the Bahá'í Temple choir and singers from various faiths.

This service is part of a week of festivities celebrating the Golden Jubilee of the Sydney Bahá'í Temple. Officially dedicated on 17 September 1961, the Temple has been hosting services drawing on the scriptures of the world's religions for the past fifty years.

Light refreshments will be served following the service.
